

Ticket Terms & Conditions

If you have any questions or comments, please contact us by email at gig@malarkeyplaywork.com.au

:: Bookings & Payments

The full amount and all instalment options must be paid in full no later than 14 days before conference, unless you have a prior arrangement with Malarkey Playwork. All prices include GST with full access to all keynote presentations and breakout sessions, refreshments, and lunches on all three conference days, 8/9/10 March 2024.

Attendance at the Conference Dinner is ticketed separately and is not included in the main ticket price. It will take place on the evening of Saturday 9th March 2024. This is a ticket only event and must be paid for no later than 14 days before conference.

If all conference tickets are sold before the date, you will be offered a place on the waiting list.

:: Cancellations & Substitutions

If you need to cancel your conference booking, please inform Malarkey Playwork as soon possible. Places cancelled after booking will incur a cancellation fee of 25%; places cancelled within 60 days of conference (January 8 2024) will incur a cancellation fee of 50%; and places cancelled within 30 days of conference (February 7 2024) will incur a cancellation fee of 100%.

Malarkey Playwork is more than happy to allow a transfer of a conference place to another individual for no additional cost on condition that notification is given by email to Malarkey Playwork not later than 7 days before conference (March 1 2024).

:: Photography, Audio and Video Recording

The National Play and Playwork Conference is a public event and so please feel free to take photographs and share them on your social media pages remembering to be respectful of other participant's personal feelings of privacy. However, please do not take any video or audio recording of any workshop, presentation or keynote speeches. Also note, there will be an official conference media person taking photos and video throughout the conference days and the dinner night. Malarkey Playwork reserves the right to use images and video taken at the conference for future events. If you have concerns over your image being used, please bring this to the attention of a member of a Team Malarkey on the day.

Malarkey Playwork will be making full use of social media during the conference and hopes that participants will join in and use the hastag #OzPlay24 on all your posts before, during and after the conference.

:: Finally

This will be an incredible sharing and learning event – please use it as an opportunity to network and share, as a challenge, as a chance for staff development, and as a break in the sun, sea and sand (erm, it's in Melbourne remember!).
